Animation Film Design (Faculty: Communication Design)

Q.No	Question
1	Create a flipbook with 20 frames on the theme "Life is Fun". Use only basic shapes- circle, triangle and square. Required Material: 3 A4 sized printing papers.
2	Develop a character that is half human and half ice. The superpower of the character is to cool down the earth and reverse the effect of global warming. Present your character with notes.
3	Watch the video below and respond to the following questions. Write each answer in less than 50 words:  A. What mood does the animation convey? B. How does the use of color and movement contribute to the story? C. What storytelling technique is most evident in the animation?