NID M.Des 2020
Original Paper
(Part B)

Q. 1. Sketch a person's hand holding the stapler and stapling the paper. This was about observation, proportion and details.

Q. 2. The second question asked for the measures to be drawn for the hazardous air that we breathe

Q. 3. The names of the furniture were given and one had to write the fonts as the products. An example of Executive Chair was given and to draw:

- Coffee table
- Rocking chair
- Store cabinet
- Bean bag

Interior Design

Q. 1. “You are living in a studio apartment and planning for a home film festival. Draw three steps to prepare for the same. ” This needed planning and execution steps.

Q. 2. One had to design a chair for a kid. In this it was important to identify the age of the kid and his need and the purpose of the chair. The design should be a good balance of aesthetic and function, hence it should be appropriately designed.

Q. 3. A dough was given, 3 chairs were supposed to be drawn from the same.

Apparel Design

Q. 1. Draw an apparel showing the given phenomenon:
A lotus leaf has rough surface and gathers water as droplets, which when bumped, carries dirt along with it. The same had to be incorporated in an apparel design. Here the client, category, occasion, fabric choice, colours, surface techniques, silhouettes, embellishments and accessorisation everything was to be considered.

Q. 2. Draw an apparel for rickshaw puller to protect him from smog in old Delhi.

Interaction Design

Q. 1. One had to illustrate the sketch and plan for a display unit.

Transportation & Automobile Design

Q. 1. A side view of a car for a particular brand was given. Observing the same, one had to draw the same with finer details in different views and perspectives.

Q. 2. Design different modes of transports from certain given images.